Occupations, Inc., Announces Staff Promotions

Middletown, NY, February 5, 2008, — Occupations, Inc. is pleased to announce the following promotions to their leadership structure.

Maude A Rosado, has been promoted from Director of Financial Services to Chief Financial Officer of Occupations' $50 million multi-corporate structure where she will direct, analyze and report all financial activities and ensure the reliability of information available for current and long-term financial and strategic planning. An experienced financial expert in not-for-profit financial management, Rosado will guide and advise the executive leadership team and enhance the stability and growth of the corporations. A graduate of Mount Saint Mary's College in Newburgh, she holds a bachelor's degree in accounting, graduating Magna Cum Laude. She has also completed coursework toward an MBA at Mount Saint Mary's. A life-long resident of Middletown, Rosado enjoys her spare time hiking, gardening and most of all, being involved with her 11-year old son, Jeramy.

Lori A. Lentini, of Montgomery, New York, has been promoted to the position of Vice President of Human Resources. A Human Resource Executive with over 17 years of experience in banking, engineering and manufacturing environments, she has proven record in leading strategic initiatives that accomplish organizational objections while enhancing staff retention, growth and development. Lentini will continue to initiate and implement comprehensive proactive Human Resources polices and programs in a multi-corporate environment supporting the over 600 employees of Occupations, Inc. Lentini received a BA in Management from Hofstra University and an MS in Human Resource Development and Counseling from the University of Bridgeport. She and her husband, Tom, enjoy spending time with their two children, Nicole and James, attending their extra-curricular activities and planning family vacations.
